NOTE: Voucher rates effective July 26, 2010. Voucher rates subject to change according to availability of program.

In order to minimize pet over-population and reduce euthanasia as a means of animal control, pet owners are encouraged to spay/neuter. Some participating vets may require additional fees (rabies, vaccinations, boarding office visit fees and post-surgical pain medication, etc.) Be sure to inquire about these additional fees prior to making your appointment.
